

Donor Privacy Policy

The National Math and Science Initiative (NMSI) uses its best efforts to protect the privacy of our donors.

NMSI collects personal information for a number of purposes. Personal information may include, but is not limited to, names, addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses.

NMSI does not sell, share, or trade our donors' names or personal information with any other entity, or send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations.

NMSI will use your information to comply with the law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to conform to the requirements of law or comply with legal processes served on us, protect and defend our rights or act in urgent circumstances to protect the personal safety of others.

Third-party service providers may be engaged by NMSI to perform a variety of functions, such as assisting with donation collection, providing technical services, etc. Such entities may have access to personal information, if needed, to perform certain functions. However, these entities may use such personal information only for the purpose of performing that function and may not use it for any other purpose.

This policy applies to all information received by NMSI, both online and offline, on any platform (including the NMSI website), as well as any electronic, written, or oral communication.

NMSI reserves the right to change this policy as necessary. NMSI will provide the most current revision date on this document.
